

4 Shot Outside LA Party Held After Justin Bieber's Concert

Stock image of cops tape. (Carl Ballou/Shutterstock)

LOS ANGELES—Four individuals were shot and injured early Saturday after a battle broke out outside a Los Angeles dining establishment hosting a celebration that followed a Justin Bieber show, authorities stated.

The shooting appeared outside The Nice Guy dining establishment, striking and hurting 4 males ages 60, 19, 20 and 22, LAPD Officer Lizeth Lomeli stated. Their names were not launched.

Two of the victims were taken to the healthcare facility and were noted in steady condition. A 3rd individual left the scene however was later on carried by the Los Angeles Fire Department to the healthcenter, likewise in steady condition, she stated.

Lomeli stated she didn't have instant info on the 4th victim.

No suspect has actually been determined, she stated.

The celebration followed Bieber's personal show at the Pacific Design Center in West Hollywood, California as part of a Super Bowl-week celebration called "Homecoming Weekend." The visitors at the star-studded occasion consisted of Jeff Bezos, his sweetheart TELEVISION host Lauren Sánchez, "Hamilton" star Anthony Ramos, and NFL Hall-of-Famer Tony Gonzalez.

The Hollywood Reporter reports that Bieber and his other half Hailey Baldwin, Drake, Khloe Kardashian, and Tobey Maguire were likewise amongst the stars seen going into the afterparty.

A

Follow

Source: 4 Shot Outside LA Party Held After Justin Bieber's Concert.