

Leonardo DiCaprio-Tied Home In L.A. Sells To Singer-Songwriter Miguel For $4.9 Million

A trust connected to star Leonard DiCaprio, visualized at The Social Bite Cafe, just recently offered a ... [+] multimillion-dollar house in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles.

Getty Images

A-list star Leonardo DiCaprio has actually discovered a purchaser for a residential or commercial property in the Los Feliz Oaks area of Los Angeles, records program.

The 1926 Tudor-style house, which hit the market last year for $5.75 million, just recently offered to well-known artist Miguel for $4.9 million.

The historical Los Feliz community of Los Angeles has actually been home to many Hollywood stars.

getty

The purchase continues the residential or commercial property's long line of celeb property owners. Prior to DiCaprio's ownership, the almost 100-year old house belonged to singer-DJ Moby, who offered it for $4.19 million in 2018 to a household trust connected to the Oscar-winning star. During that time, the Los Feliz house was brought back and upgraded while still maintaining much of the initial architectural character.

Known as Red Oak Manor, the five-bedroom, seven-bathroom functions standard touches like wood floorings, french doors and 3 fireplaces, and more modern-day aspects like high, arched ceilings, a steam space a loft area.

The Los Feliz home understood as Red Oak Manor has actually been connected to various stars, consisting of the ... [+] electronic artist Moby.

Hilton & Hyland

Much of the house's airy character comes from the mix of long banks of bay windows, an selection of decorative wall sconces and a light color combination that extends to the white kitchen cabinetry and marble of the eat-in kitchen area.

Other preferable information consist of built-ins, elaborate molding and downplayed paneling throughout.

A carefully arched ceiling cocoons the living space, which includes one of the house's 3 fireplaces. ... [+] (Hilton & Hyland)

Hilton & Hyland

Privacy hedges and fully grown trees guard the house's yard, which includes a stone-deck swimming pool and hot tub.

The listing was held by Brett Lawyer of Beverly Hills-based high-end brokerage Hilton & Hyland.

Mature trees surround the residential or commercial property, providing the house a charming ambiance regardless of being in the heart of Los ... [+] Angeles.

Hilton & Hyland

The sale comes on the heels of another of DiCaprio's prominent closings. In November, the star of The Revenant and Don't Look Up offered his Malibu cottage for $10.3 million after simply 2 months on the market.

Hilton & Hyland is a unique member of Forbes Global Properties, a customer market and subscription network of elite brokerages selling the world's most glamorous houses.

Source: Leonardo DiCaprio-Tied Home In L.A. Sells To Singer-Songwriter Miguel For \$4.9 Million.